WHAT IS QUANTITY SURVEYING?

Quantity Surveying involves monitoring procurement, contractual issues, and managing all costs associated with civil engineering, building, and architectural projects. Professionals from ADDMORE Services are well-versed in uncovering opportunities to minimize expenses and provide advice on implications of the clients' requirements as well as other stakeholders' decisions.

Our quantity surveyors closely monitor the complete construction cycle, provide an accurate value for the construction cost estimates, predict accurate task duration times, update supply progress reports, and perform other tasks that inherently reduce the risk of setbacks or delays. They aspire to ensure a cost-efficient project without ever failing to adhere to health and safety regulations or compromising on the quality end.

QUANTITY SURVEYING SERVICES

Whether you are a manufacturer or builder, it is important to have an edge over the competition by getting an accurate and consistent Bill of Material (BOM).
